I/We hereby certify that all account holders listed on this form currently live in the same household at the same address. Should any of the primary account owners listed move out of the designated household address, their combined deposit and loan balances will no longer be used to determine Winner's Circle household reward levels. To comply with privacy laws, all primary account owners must give permission to opt-in to the Winner's Circle householding option by signing in the designated areas below. Signing this form does not give account access to household members who are not joint owners.
